

Keystone Electronics Appoint New President.

Astoria, NY– The appointment of Troy David as President of Keystone Electronics Corp. marks a new era for this major manufacturer of interconnect components and electronic hardware.

Mr. David has been executive Vice-President of the firm. He joined Keystone in 1988 following graduation from Boston University's School of Management.

Richard D. David, who served as President for more than three decades is now Chief Executive Officer.

Keystone Electronics Corp. has been serving the industry for over 60 years.

